

dedicated educators

Gene Juarez Academy educators are highly regarded by the student body and are dedicated to providing you with an excellent education. They will mentor and coach you along the way from the moment you pick up your shears for the first time to preparing you to take the State Board exams. Their passion and experience will give you the confidence and support to successfully complete your education, become licensed and begin your career.

Find out more by contacting us today!

800.230.3636

the student experience